

with them when I went out in the western states I carried a couple of rifles with me simply to show to the dealers.

Q Do you know whether during the time you were with the Remington Arms Company revolvers or pistols were made?

A I believe the Remington Arms Company made a little double-barreled rim fire derringer; they only sold 100 or 200 in the year and I wasn't bothered with them in any way. I had a sample which I returned to the factory.

Q Your work was not in connection with that at all?

A Not at all. The shot gun work was my work.

Q Did you ever shoot an automatic?

A I never shot an automatic pistol in my life.

Q Who is Miss Rogers or is it Miss Blodgett that I am referring to?

A Miss Blodgett - and I mentioned Miss Rogers, but that was entirely erroneous; Miss Rogers did not, I believe, say she saw me that night; she told Mrs. Stevens she saw me almost every night on the boardwalk.

Q Where is she now?

A She is at present in our house at Lavalette or she was the other day in order to help Mrs. Stevens take care of the house.

Q Who is John Kight?

A He is a boy, I think he is just about grown up, and
